Think fireworks and patriotism might be a little inappropriate this July 4th? With over 4000 U.S. military and over a million Iraqis dead, with no end in sight, perhaps it's time for less fire and more light. Start your July 4th right, join us for a time of reflection with a memorial service and silent peace walk commemorating all victims of the Iraq war, and recommit ourselves to ending this insanity.

We will gather at Arlington West Memorial, a symbolic military cemetery set up each weekend in the sands of Santa Monica Beach to commemorate U.S. military personnel who have died in Iraq and Afghanistan. It offers visitors a graceful, visually powerful place for reflection on the cost and consequences of U.S. imperial wars.
